I am writing to express my concern for the consumers, businesses and for Microsoft. I feel that it is high time for this persecution of Microsoft to come to a resolution. I feel that Microsoft is an outstanding example of what an entrepreneur can achieve in these United States of America. Microsoft has help to move this country into a wonderful new era.

I am pleased to hear that a fair resolution is on the negotiation table. For the sake of the consumers and for others who would like to improve our way of life, allow Microsoft the freedom to keep pushing ahead without further fear of persecution.

Thank you,
